

New Amulet Collection

Amulet Collection: 6 of the best gemstones you can wear

Rachel has created a new collection of hand made 9ct gold and gemstone Amulet necklaces, with each one having a different meaning.

All gemstones have energetic or healing properties. So you can simply choose which ever one suits you, or choose a piece that you're drawn to.

During the lock down Rachel felt, like a lot of people, that she needed a little bit of extra protection. She was drawn to the Ruby necklace- and she's worn it everyday since.

Wearing your amulet in the form of a necklace is by far the best way, as it's close to your heart. You can also decide whether or not to have it on show. Worn like this, it's believed to create a deep connection and provides comfort to the wearer.

Rachel says "When I'm making each piece of jewellery, I always like to put good thoughts and energy into the work. I believe that objects carry the feelings of the craftspeople who make them. So hopefully you get some nice vibes from my jewellery."

Each amulet necklace is available in 6 beautiful gemstones, each having a different symbolic meaning.

RUBY - Protection

EMERALD - Clarity & strengthening memory

GREEN SAPPHIRE - Compassion & understanding

BLUE SAPPHIRE - Focusing & calming the mind

OPAL - Originality & creativity

DIAMOND - Amplifying energy & imagination
